INTERVIEW WITH THE GENERAL MANAGER

Q.How would you describe your leadership style?

A.My style is more or less like that of a coach. If I had to put this one phrase, it would be "Try this".

Q.What is your approach to delegating employees?

A.Empowering employees is tremendously important to me, so I would give them a task and let them handle it while focusing on achieving the results.

Q.How do you ensure that tasks are carried out to the completion?

A.This is based on the traditional "reward and punishment" system while incentives represent "rewards" and Rules and regulations define "punishments".

Q. What sort of a relationship do you hold with your team?

Aleen Ali – Level 9 -

Lahore

I remained a part of Berlitz till level 9 and still am a part of it. Everyone is thrilled to see such improvement in my English and I must say that it would have been a challenging journey without Berlitz. For me, learning English was more like walking on thorny road. I was reluctant about my learning skills just before stepping into Berlitz, but when I became a part of it as a student, it was just amazing because Berlitz's instructors boosted me up towards my goals. I was just a raw material and I must say that Berlitz not only shaped me but polished me as well. Whatever I have acquired so far is just because of the dedication and deep knowledge of my instructors. The method and the system that teachers use are excellent. Berlitz and its staff have been wonderful with me.

I appreciate all Berlitz teachers. They gave me a wonderful and memorable time that I can never forget.

Jawad Zafar – Level 5 -

Lahore

I'm a lawyer by profession i wanted to improve my structures and speaking skills. I visited NUML for English language class, someone told me to join Berlitz instead of NUML. When I joined Berlitz, I wasn't in a position to argue my case fluently in English in the high court. I joined Berlitz from level 2. Maria was my first instructor in level 2 she helped me a lot to improve then I have been studying from Suleman since level 3, he's very hardworking. He helped me a lot to improve me. Now I can argue my case fluently in English. I recommended two more students to join Berlitz, they are also satisfied. I think Berlitz is the best institution to learn to speak language. I love to study here.
